

In order to undertake this case, all of us had to be willing to sue the wealthiest, and most corrupt people on Earth. You might ask; "Why would anybody do that?" Because it is the right thing to do, justice and ethics are on our side, the public has mandated the end of political corruption. These people engaged in criminal acts, and bought elected officials who were supposed to deliver fairness and justice. Since the people who were supposed to fix this refuse to do their jobs, now it is up to you, and us, to fix this.
